

Workshops and Classes:

Court Departments conduct workshops or classes to help individuals with various court processes. Below is information regarding the classes or workshops offered by the respective departments:

Family Court Department:

The Family Court Department conducts free workshops for the following processes:

- Establishment of Paternity, Custody, Parenting Time and Child Support;
- Modification of Child Support;
- Modification of Child Support and Stop/Change Order of Assignment;

Information pertaining to these workshops can be found at:

<http://www.superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/SuperiorCourt/FamilyCourt/announcements.asp>

Probate Court Department:

The Probate Court Department is conducting a free workshop titled “Accounting 123’s” “How to Complete an Annual Accounting”. This workshop will walk conservators through the basic steps of a Probate Court Accounting.

Workshop topics will include:

- Inventory of Assets
- Completing the Accounting Form
- Supporting Documents

The workshop will take place at the Phoenix Public Library, Room B
(Library is located on Central Avenue just south of McDowell Road)

October 12, 2011 - 6:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

To Register, call....602-506-5993

Law Library:

The Law Library offers the following classes:

- How to Find Legal Information on the Internet;
- How to Use the Library’s Free Westlaw Patron Access;
- How to Use the Library’s Advanced Westlaw Patron Access;

Information pertaining to these classes can be found at:

<http://www.superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/LawLibrary/LibraryInformation/classes.asp>

Criminal Court Department:

Workshops to assist individuals with completing paperwork to restore civil rights or to reduce a class 6 undesignated felony to a misdemeanor are held at the Downtown Law Library. For information regarding dates and times for the workshops, please call (602) 372-6803.